Brief Report:

On the occasion of International Women's Day, a special program on the theme “Sanman... Stree Kartutvacha” (Honouring Women's Achievements) was celebrated with great enthusiasm at Rajiv Gandhi College of Engineering, Research and Technology (RCERT), Chandrapur on 9 March 2026. The program was organized under the guidance of Sardar Patel Memorial Society (Trust) with the objective of recognizing and honoring women who have made remarkable contributions in various fields of society and inspiring students through their achievements.

The event was held at the Late Chhotubhai Patel Auditorium on the RCERT campus and witnessed the presence of dignitaries, faculty members, non-teaching staff, and students in large numbers. The program was presided over by Vinodji Dattatray, President of Sardar Patel Memorial Society, Chandrapur. The chief guests for the program were Ashwini Jadhav, Deputy Director of Chandrapur Forest Academy, and Prabhavati Ekurke, Police Inspector of the District Special Branch, Chandrapur. The program commenced with the traditional lighting of the lamp by the dignitaries, symbolizing the beginning of the celebration.

During their addresses, the dignitaries emphasized the significance of women's empowerment and highlighted the vital role women play in the progress and development of society. They noted that women today are making remarkable contributions in various fields such as education, administration, healthcare, social service, industry, arts, and sports. They further stated that recognizing and appreciating women's achievements through such programs helps motivate society and encourages young students to follow inspiring examples.

The program was also graced by Jayant Velankiwar, Secretary of SPMS, Ninad Gaddamwar, Treasurer of SPMS, Dr. Anil Chitade, Principal of RCERT, and Prof. Yogendra Parihar, who were present on the dais.

A major highlight of the program was the felicitation of women who have made significant contributions in different sectors of society. The honored guests were felicitated with a shawl, coconut, and a memento as a token of appreciation for their dedicated work.

Among the honorees, Parveen Pathan has been actively involved in conducting awareness campaigns in schools and colleges through the police department on issues such as women's rights, violence against women, and child safety. Through these initiatives, students are educated about laws, personal safety, and their rights, thereby creating awareness and promoting responsible citizenship.

Chhabutai Vairagade has been consistently working in the field of social service and actively addressing issues related to women. Through her continuous efforts, she provides support, guidance, and encouragement to women while also working towards social awareness and community development.

Usha Ashok Bukkavar, inspired by the belief that social service is not merely a duty but a spiritual experience, has been working for the welfare of society for the past twenty-four years. Her dedication and commitment to social work have contributed significantly to community welfare.

Dr. Sangeeta Potle has been actively working in the social sector since 2003 and has a total experience of about 23 years. She has extensive experience in the fields of HIV/AIDS awareness and prevention, de-addiction programs, project management, training management, human resource management, research management, counseling, awareness campaigns, and community participation. Her work has contributed significantly to spreading awareness and improving community health.

Meenakshi Walke is actively engaged in social work and is promoting the use of bamboo to create various useful products. Through this initiative, she has helped generate employment opportunities and encouraged sustainable livelihoods within the community.

Varsha Kodape is working in the fields of social service, education, and journalism and actively participates in social reform movements. At a young age, she received the Chief Minister's Rural Development Fellowship from the Government of Maharashtra. Between 2017 and 2020, she made valuable contributions toward rural development, particularly in tribal-dominated areas.

The introductory address of the program was delivered by Dr. Anil Chitade, who highlighted the various academic and social initiatives undertaken by the college. He emphasized that organizing such programs helps in recognizing the achievements of women and inspires the younger generation. He also stated that when women are given equal opportunities, they can achieve remarkable success in every field.

During the event, Prabhavati Ekurke delivered an informative presentation on cyber crimes and online safety. She explained the different forms of cyber crimes that are increasingly occurring in the digital age and guided students on how to remain alert and protect themselves while using online platforms. She also provided practical tips on the safe use of social media, protecting personal information, and reporting suspicious online activities.

SARDAR PATEL MEMORIAL SOCIETY (TRUST)

The second Chief Guest, Ashwini Jadhav, delivered a motivational address encouraging students to focus on their career goals and prepare for competitive examinations, particularly for administrative services. She motivated students to work with dedication, discipline, and determination so that they can serve society and contribute to nation-building through responsible leadership.

To make the celebration more enjoyable and engaging, several games and fun activities were also organized for the lady staff members of the college. These activities created a cheerful and lively atmosphere and strengthened the sense of bonding and camaraderie among the staff members.

Another special moment of the event was the felicitation of teachers and students of RCERT who participated in the Guinness World Record “Mahalavani” performance. The dignitaries appreciated their achievement and congratulated them for bringing recognition to the institution.

The program witnessed the enthusiastic participation of a large number of teaching and non-teaching staff members as well as students. The program was smoothly conducted by Prof. Kishor Muley, who also delivered the vote of thanks, expressing gratitude to the dignitaries, organizers, and participants for making the event successful.

Overall, the celebration of International Women’s Day at RCERT served as a meaningful platform to honor inspiring women, spread awareness about women’s empowerment, and motivate students to contribute positively to society.
